BIOGRAPHY

Tony is an experienced complex litigation attorney who represents full service and specialty health plans in disputes with both providers and governmental agencies. As a litigator, Tony advises health plans in areas including contract disputes, regulatory compliance, tort liability, and payment disputes involving reasonable value for medically necessary services and payment rates under the Knox-Keene Act. Tony represents his clients in arbitration proceedings and in federal and state courts.

With 20 years of experience practicing law, Tony has a well-rounded background in every aspect of civil litigation and arbitration, from the initial pleading or demand, through discovery, law and motion practice, settlement negotiation, trial, and appeal.
