BIOGRAPHY

Kelly specializes in health care regulatory compliance and transactions for national and regional health plans with commercial, Medicare Advantage, Medi-Cal, and/or specialized lines of business. She assists clients with a wide range of matters, including achieving and maintaining Knox-Keene licensure, crafting and negotiating provider and vendor contracts, internal health plan policy drafting and analysis, data sharing/protection arrangements, and interpreting and advising on the application of federal and state laws, regulations, and government agency guidance. Prior to joining DSR, Kelly worked at the California Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC) in the Office of Legal Services where she gained extensive knowledge of California's health care delivery system. At DMHC, Kelly made legal and policy recommendations in implementing the Knox-Keene Act, advised on statutory and regulatory compliance issues, and responded to sensitive and complex Public Records Act requests. She also handled personnel matters, including negotiations, settlement agreements, and submissions to the State Personnel Board.
